The author of this book is an incredible woman .. She got 50 of these books donate to my nonprofit US4KIDS for your backpack project to help homeless kindergartner kids start the first day with a big smile

I taught kindergarten before starting a family, and we always read this book on the first day. It helps to ease the first day jitters and opens our eyes to diversity and how we can all learn from one another. Highly recommended! I bought it for my sister, a second grade teacher, to share with her little ones as well.

I bought this book to read to my new kindergarten class in just a few weeks. I can't wait to share this with them. Great story about how everyone is unique and has something to share.

My daughter checked this book out from the library and had to have her own copy Bought for my granddaughter for Christmas. She loves flamingos and had me read it to her repeatedly. Interesting facts about alot of different animals. Great for a 4/5 year old.

This book is a must for the Flamingo lover just entering school. My Granddaughter sleeps with the book since I gave it to her for entering Pre-School!

The book is WONDERFUL! A great learning tool for children in a whimsical manner. Great gift for tots!

Ordered this little child's book for my granddaughter, 5, who loves flamingos! She likes it....I haven't personally read it yet.
