Humility Matters: Toward Purity Of Heart (The Matters Series)

Synopsis

Humility Matters makes the claims that humility is for a disciple of Jesus Christ what enlightenment is for a Buddhist, realization for a Hindu, surrender for a Muslim, and righteousness for a Jew. It is the unmistakable character of one who has accepted the vocation to undertake the spiritual journey. It is at the core of our experience of life in Christ. Meg Funk guides readers deeper into a life of humility by following the movement of what the early Christians called the four renunciations: to renounce our former way of life, our thoughts of our former way of life, our self-made thoughts of God, and our self-made thoughts of ourselves. With the help of the compelling examples of St. Benedict, St. Teresa of Jesus, and St. Therese of Lisieux, Funk shows the way to ongoing conversion of mind, heart, and way of life. Mary Margaret Funk is a Benedictine nun of Our Lady of Grace Monastery, Beech Grove, Indiana. From 1994 through 2004, she served as executive director of Monastic Interreligious Dialogue, which fosters dialogue among monastics of the world's religions. In addition to the volumes of the Matters Series, she is the author of Islam Isâ |: An Experience of Dialogue and Devotion and Into the Depths: A Journey of Loss and Vocation.

Customer Reviews

Excellent book have been looking for something this clear about the spiritual journey for some time! I truly recommend it to anyone who wants to grow closer to our Lord.

Simple and clear - but so profound I will need to re-read many times. Thank you Mary Margaret for your great insight

I found this very helpful, in my quest for humility, not that anyone can achieve humility without Christ's help.
