I've studied a lot of positive thinking material in my life, to learn more about how our thoughts can actually change our reality. This book will help you change you thinking and reality toward positive results everyday. If you string a lot of days like that together...what a great way to live!

If you've ever stopped doing something that you intended to accomplish and wish you had completed it, this is the book for you. It squelches those negative thoughts and helps you press on to your goal. A must read for anyone who wants to get ahead.
