Totally recommended. This devotional won't pray for you. It also won't let you get off the hook by reading a prayer from its pages either. Much of this book is relevant insight and allegory. It begins with a verse reference that I like to look up and have open while I read the day's page. Each message has a "bottom line" summary that does a great job nailing the relevant themes to apply to your day. Get this book and don't forget it when you travel. A part of your day will be missing, albeit a 10 min or less part, but it will feel like a much bigger void.

This is one of best devotionals I have read. The quality of the book is awesome and the contents inside were written very well. If you are looking for a simple and encouraging devotional, this is the one for you. Written for anyone.

I gave this as a gift to my son and my husband. Both have enjoyed using it.

Went to find something to replace my Stand Firm magazine from Lifeway and hit upon a treasure in this book. A real keeper, a tremendous help.

Great devotional. Speaks a lot of truth, and helpful for my heart.

Awesome men's devotional to guide you as a father an husband!!

A great devotional book for men to grow in Christ

Very well written
